

2019 Social Justice Series

The Fraternity & Sorority Life Office invites you to a three part Social Justice Series.

Each workshop will focus on a specific aspect of social justice within Fraternity & Sorority Life through an educational and interactive lens. We encourage students in the FSL community to attend any or all of these upcoming workshops.

Please reach out to us at socialjustice@greeklife.wisc.edu with any accommodation requests or any questions/concerns about these workshops.

Social Justice 101

Wednesday, March 6, 7:30pm-9:00pm

Red Gym- Room TBD

This workshop will be focused on introducing social justice terminology and reflecting on social identities within our FSL community.

Accessibility in Fraternity & Sorority Life

Wednesday, March 27, 7:30-9:00pm

Red Gym- Room TBD

This workshop will be focused on accessibility in Fraternity & Sorority Life. Participants will reflect on their privileges and how they can start conversation and impact change in their organizations.

Alcohol & Inclusion

Wednesday, April 10, 7:30-9:00pm

Memorial Union- Room TBD

This workshop will be focused on drinking culture at UW-Madison in relation to race and other social identities with a specific lens on Fraternities and Sororities.

FRATERNITY & SORORITY LIFE

IFC | MGC | NPHC | PHA
Est. 1848